

UTOPIA (2009): A DISCUSSION

Hosted by the Utopian Studies Seminar

It's the year 2023 and Utopia is one of several superrich gated communities that dots the North Coast of Egypt. Surrounded by immense ghettos, it exploits the poor for cheap labor and receives protection from U.S. Marines. But what happens when the wealthy scions of Utopia get bored and decide to play a deadly game?

Ahmed Khaled Towfik's Utopia (2009) offers a chilling vision of a future neo-liberal world order. Possible Worlds, Alternative Futures will discuss the implications of Towfik's work for utopian and ludic studies.

Tuesday, December 10th at 4:15 pm

Room 6417

Visit Possible Worlds, Alternative Futures at:

The CUNY Academic Commons
www.commonsgc.cuny.edu

The Center for the Humanities
www.centerforthehumanities.org/seminar